

A peek into the future of work

To transform work, the workforce and the workplace, businesses must employ next level technologies that engage the next generation of employees.

The future workplace will

Be digital and breaking silos with blurred physical and virtual environments

The future work will

Necessitate collaboration between teams and ecosystems with a constant upskill and significant automation

The future workforce will

Be human/AI hybrid expected to have higher flexibility and personalization

The shape of things to come

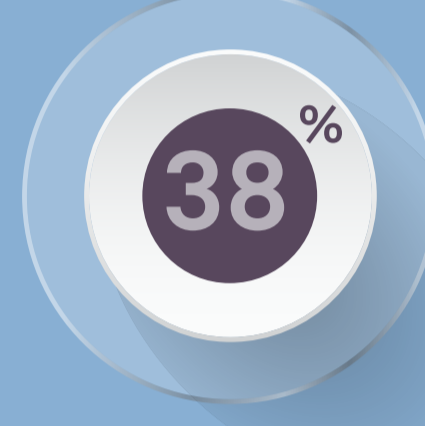

The digital age has fundamentally changed the relationship between employees and employers. The digital economy now demands new ideas, new information and new business models for organizations to stay relevant.

81% of workers spend a portion of their time working outside their office

80% of workforce globally, are seeking new jobs

38% of millennials believe outdated collaboration tools hinder innovation

94% of CHROs are digitizing employee related processes within 1-3 yrs

67% of business leaders agree to be more digitized in 2020

60% of CHROs will implement digital initiatives to enhance employee experience in 1-3 years

52% of business leaders demonstrate High Productive Conflict. It's an opportunity to strengthen Inclusivity and address critical aspects of today's work environment

Employees at the heart of our Strategy

Wipro is partnering with enterprises across the world to enable workforce transformation by adopting employee facing technologies & consumer - grade experiences.

Enable Productivity
By using employee-facing emerging technologies we enable our talent to deliver business value & outcome.

Enhance Experience
We map the entire employee journey to enhance their experience, to be advocates of organizations and make our customers successful.

People First, Technology Second
We believe success of organization is brought to bear by talent they possess. Our solutions are deep rooted in making impact through talent capital, with talent at the core.

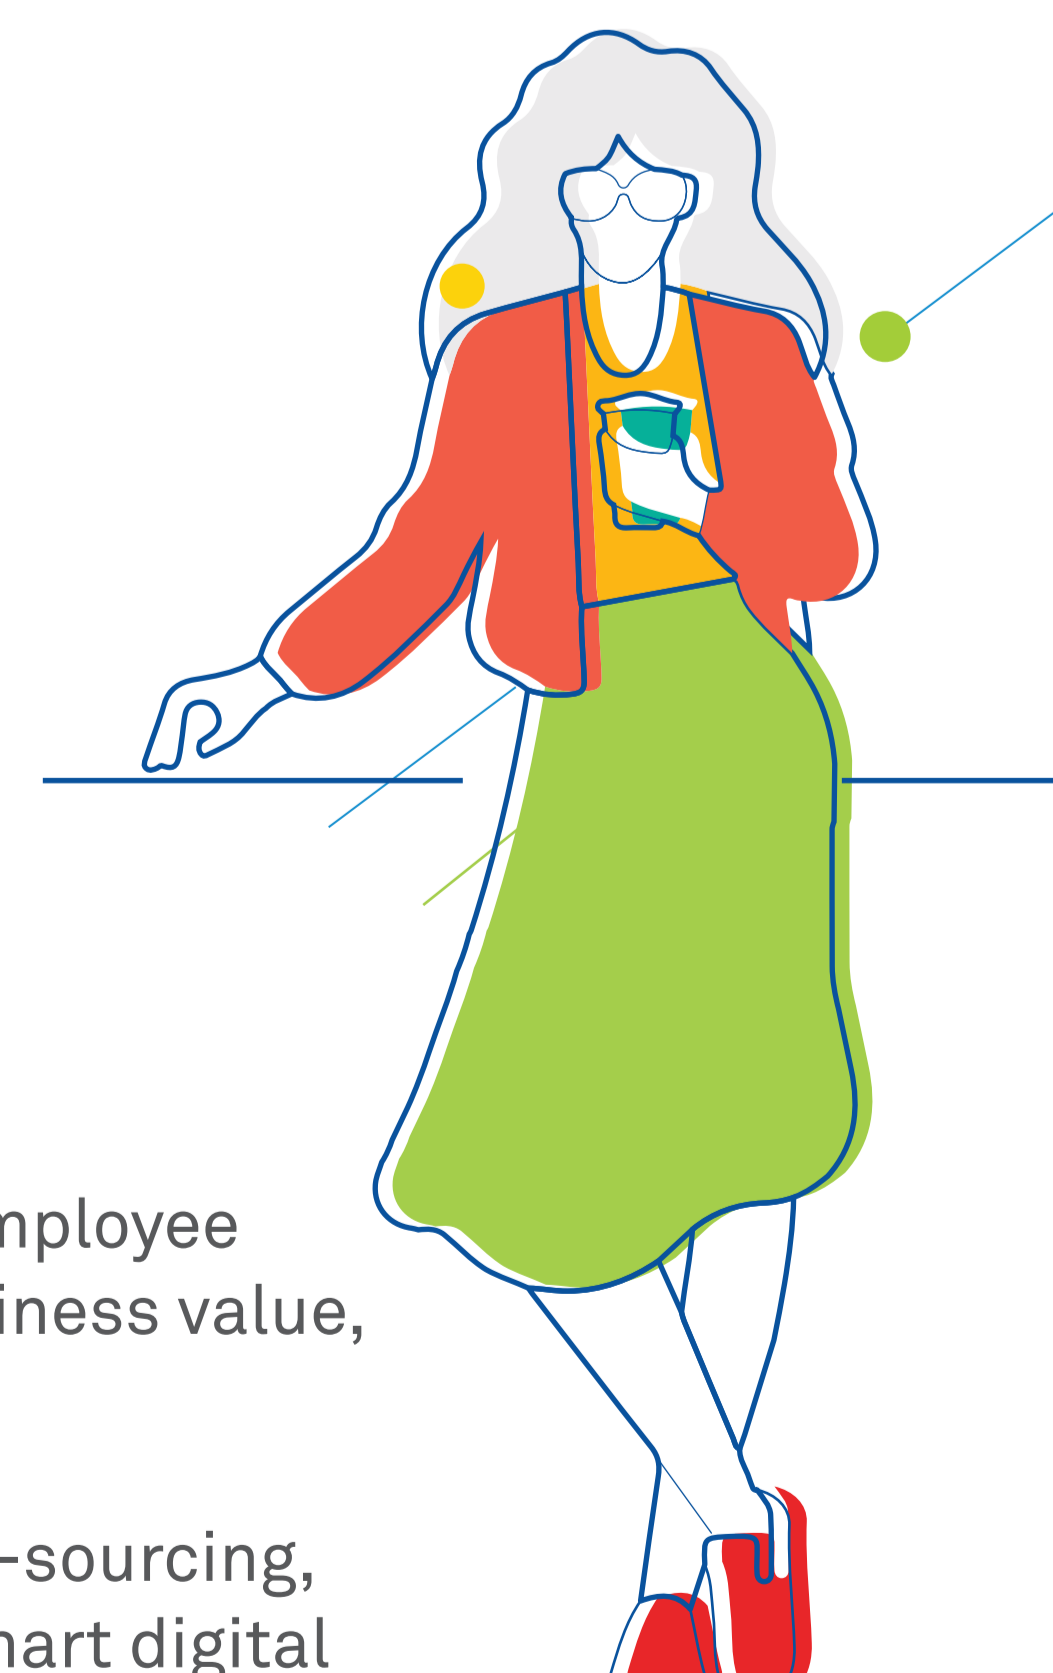

Think Big, and Far Ahead
By encouraging and accepting even incremental improvements, which can make an impact and help differentiate us to attract & retain the best talent.

Technologies that put people first

Employing emerging technologies to enhance employee experience enabling them to deliver greater business value, productivity and outcomes

Using Cloud based collaborative working, crowd-sourcing, conversational AI, BYOx, people data science, smart digital workspaces, shared services to impact experience

Leveraging next level productivity from

- Reimagined journey maps
- Collaborative work solutions
- Workforce analytics and insights
- Work digitalization
- Workplace IT transformation & ops
- (Any) time / device / place
- Work process automation
- Workforce operations

There is a window of opportunity now for individuals and businesses to pro-actively manage the transition to a new future.

Let us embrace it, understand it and start making investments in it