

Core Banking As-a-Service

Agility and efficiency for next gen banking

Banks operate with a complex structure that includes various internal teams and third party vendors collectively working across 'Change the Bank' and 'Run the Bank' operations. Coordination with multiple stakeholders results in operational inefficiencies, higher cost of operations ultimately hurting turnaround time.

Wipro's 'As-a-Service' offering is a compelling value proposition for financial institutions that encompasses hosting and managing the Core Banking application and underlying technology infrastructure on a variabilized cost model.

Maximize benefits by optimal investments in the core banking solution and related infrastructure
