Dhanlaxmi Bank may appoint J K Shivan MD, CEO

Dhanlaxmi Bank is planning to appoint J K Shivan managing director and chief executive officer (CEO). On October 30, shareholders of the Kerala-based bank voted to seek approval to appoint Shivan MD and CEO. The shareholders had already agreed to the appointment of Shivan as MD and CEO for 2021, and the bank has a proposal to submit a report, once the appointment of Shivan as MD and CEO gets approved. According to bank’s notification, the board recommended a panel of candidates to the RBI for appointment as MD and CEO. The bank has directed the bank to submit a proposal, once the shareholders have passed a resolution in that regard. Shivan, who has served as the chairman of VIF, has promised to start reforms in the bank on the lines of the four-pillar strategy. His career has included overseeing the various aspects of the bank's operations, including retail banking, corporate banking, and wealth management. He was previously employed at SBI and has also been involved in corporate banking and treasury operations. He has been a significant contributor to the bank's growth and development over the past 27 years. His experience in SBI and in the central and urban centres of Central India will be a valuable asset to the bank. He has also been involved in the bank's initiative to improve corporate governance and financial stability. He has a strong track record of delivering excellent results and has been recognized for his leadership and management skills. His appointment as MD and CEO reflects the bank's commitment to enhancing its performance and achieving its strategic goals.
