Independent Research Firm identifies Wipro as One of the Most Significant Providers of Digital Product Development Services

Wipro recognized as a good choice for firms needing solid product design coupled with complex product engineering services at scale

New York, NY, USA and Bangalore, India – August 18, 2020: Wipro Limited (NYSE: WIT, BSE: 507685, NSE: WIPRO), a leading global information technology, consulting and business process services company, today announced that it has been positioned as a Strong Performer in The Forrester Wave™: Digital Product Development Services, Q2 2020. According to the report, “Wipro is a good choice for firms needing solid product design coupled with complex product engineering services at scale.”

The report, authored by Nigel Fenwick, Vice President and Principal Analyst of Forrester, said, “Wipro Digital’s strength lies in executing well across the board in digital product development services areas and excelling in research and Agile development.” The report goes on to note, “Wipro supported its claims with strong customer references. Wipro customers like the breadth of capabilities Wipro Digital can bring to bear on a complex product as well as its way of working.”

Rajan Kohli, President, Wipro Digital said “We bring world-class digital products to market for our clients by combining our industry leading product and service design capabilities from Designit, market activation and social engagement capabilities from Rational Interaction, with our domain consulting and EngineeringNXT offerings for product development. The ability to design, develop, scale and market digital products at speed is a matter of survival for companies during the current pandemic. We are honored to be positioned as we have in this Forrester Wave, and believe we are one of the few providers who has the experience of a world class design company combined with the ability to solve enterprise scale technical, engineering and marketing challenges for our clients.”

Forward-Looking Statements

The forward-looking statements contained herein represent Wipro's beliefs regarding future events, many of which are by their nature, inherently uncertain and outside Wipro's control. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding Wipro's growth prospects, its future financial operating results, and its plans, expectations and intentions. Wipro cautions readers that the forward-looking statements contained herein are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results anticipated by such statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties regarding fluctuations in our earnings, revenue and profits, our ability to generate and manage growth, complete proposed corporate actions, intense competition in IT services, our ability to maintain our cost advantage, wage increases in India, our ability to attract and retain highly skilled professionals, time and cost overruns on fixed-price, fixed-time frame contracts, client concentration, restrictions on immigration, our ability to manage our international operations, reduced demand for technology in our key focus areas, disruptions in telecommunication networks, our ability to successfully complete and integrate potential acquisitions, liability for damages on our service contracts, the success of the companies in which we make strategic investments, withdrawal of fiscal governmental incentives, political instability, war, legal restrictions on raising capital or acquiring companies outside India, unauthorized use of our intellectual property and general economic conditions affecting our business and industry. The conditions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic could decrease technology spending, adversely affect demand for our products, affect the rate of customer spending and could adversely affect our customers' ability or willingness to purchase our offerings, delay prospective customers' purchasing decisions, adversely impact our ability to provide on-site consulting services and our inability to deliver our customers or delay the provisioning of our offerings, all of which could adversely affect our future sales, operating results and overall financial performance. Our operations may also be negatively affected by a range of external factors related to the COVID-19 pandemic that are not within our control. Additional risks that could affect our future operating results are more fully described in our filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, Annual Reports on Form 20-F. These filings are available at www.sec.gov. We may, from time to time, make additional written and oral forward-looking statements, including statements contained in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and our reports to shareholders. We do not undertake to update any forward-looking statement that may be made from time to time by us or on our behalf.
