Our partnership ecosystem has helped us co-innovate our differentiated verification and validation capabilities, and has given us the flexibility to offer outcome-based pricing models to our healthcare clients. Our rating as a ‘Leader’ underlines the success of our strategy in this segment.”

Chunky Satija, Vice President, Everest Group said, “With data breaches on the rise and patient data privacy concerns increasing, healthcare organizations have come to realize that security is not solely an IT risk, but a critical business challenge.
