

Do you find it challenging to manage your cloud services?

The Digital Services Hub enables enterprises to consume an increasing diversity of cloud services from best-of-breed technology providers such as AWS.

A single hub to orchestrate a catalog of cloud services, while ensuring cost and efficiency of business process automation, security, compliance enterprise data management and reporting.

Diversity - Managing a variety of cloud services providers

Vendor Selection - Dynamically choose cloud vendors based on their service cost at the time of consumption

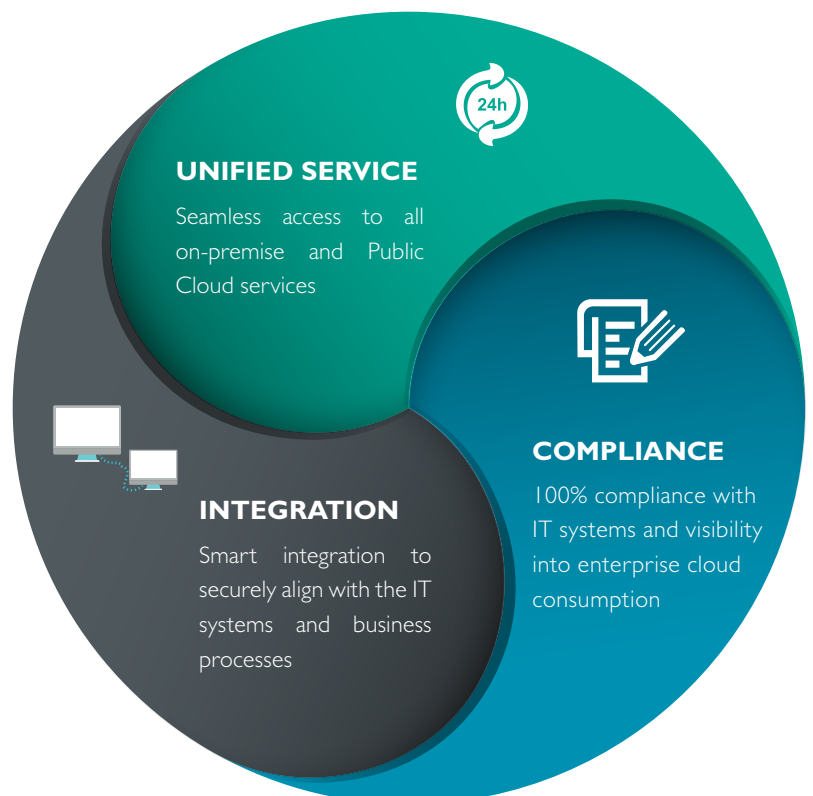

Customization - Services should comply with internal policies and business processes

Non-standardization - Disparate chargeback and governance models
